

Themed Housing Application Rubric

Each application will be scored using the rubric below. A committee will review each application, and any supplemental information, and will score based on the criteria below.

Criteria	5	4	3	2	1
Overall Theme	The Theme is well thought out, well described, and gives depth to the project	The Theme is well thought out, but is not fully deigned	Theme is described, but is lacking in detail	Theme is given, but no details are given.	No theme is mentioned
Projects Described	Projects are well thought out, details are given, timeline of completion, and the budget is utilized	Projects are well thought out, some details given, and mentioning of a budget and timeline	Projects are given, no details regarding timeline or budget	Projects listed with no details	No projects mentioned
Creativity of Projects	Utilizes personal experiences, and personal knowledge to complete projects. Thinking outside of the box	Some creativity is used. Projects have been thought of, but are not creative in nature	Projects are simple, and not well thought out. Lacking in diversification of thought	Creativity is not considered, and projects are simply normal.	No creativity
Creativity of Application	A full video presentation, Prezi, or PowerPoint is used to supplement application	Some supplemental application information is given.	Application is well written, but no extra details are given	Application is poorly written, and no details are given	Application is just filled out with no details.